

NatSIP Online Training Event

Sensory impairment resource base provision

Join the discussion!

Tuesday 1 July 2025 13:30 - 15:45

Online via Microsoft Teams

AGENDA

13:20	Platform opens
13:30	Welcome and introduction	Lindsey Rousseau NatSIP Facilitator
13:35	A discussion around the DfE work on specialist provision within mainstream learning	David Hitchman and Lizzie Millar DfE Inclusive Mainstream Division DfE SEN Unit and Resourced Provision Policy
14:05	Resource base and unit provision for learners with SI <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The current provision as we know it</li> <li>• Advantages and challenges</li> <li>• Resource bases within the continuum of provision</li> </ul>	Brian Lamb NatSIP policy lead Jane Peters Head of Service, Berkshire Sensory Consortium Service
14:25	The resource base landscape for deaf learners Findings from the NDCS audit	Justin Cooke Head of Policy and Influencing NDCS
14:40	Resource base provision—practice in the sector  Leading a VI Resource; management, pupil voice and impact  Leading a hearing resource: Working with the LA and service on a resource base audit  Resources bases: Advantages, management models, successes and some challenges	Gill Chambers Lead QTVI. VI Resource, World's End School, Birmingham.  Adrian Chrimes Lead QToD Hearing Resource, Kennet School, Thatcham  Jen Nicholson, Head of Sensory Support Service., London Borough of Tower Hamlets  Colleagues from the sector
15:20	Q and A to the sector presenters
15:35	What next?	NatSIP
15:45	Evaluation and Event close	