NatSIP, together with Sense and the National Organisation of Intervenor would like to invite you to a free twilight training event.

The event will provide you the opportunity to hear about the latest developments in intervenor professional standards and to share issues and good practice with fellow intervenors. It will also contribute to your continuing professional development.

As always, there will be the opportunity for open discussion and sharing of experiences, as your valued opinions shape the development of future training for intervenors.

The keynote speaker for the event will be Barbara Moore, Qualified Story Massage Instructor, speaking on Story Massage.

Please bring along any resources you have found useful as we are all always on the lookout for new ideas.

To book your free place, please email: anthony.mckay@sense.org.uk
