

NatSIP North - Working Day

10:15 - 16:00, Wednesday 4 December 2013

Novotel Hotel, Fishergate, YORK. YO10 4FD

This event, about the current reforms and legislation in SEN and the Children and Families Bill, is for managers, members of support services, schools and colleges, agencies and organisations working together to secure better outcomes for children and young people with sensory impairment.

We encourage colleagues from health and social care to join us as we explore the developments around the legislation supporting the Children and Families Bill.

The day will include

- An update from David Chater (DfE SEND Division) with news from the DfE about the progress of the Children and Families Bill and the draft Code of Practice
- Brian Lamb will talk about the implications of the SEND reforms on outcomes for children and young people with sensory impairment and the professionals supporting them
- Jamie McMahon (NDCS) will discuss the funding reforms with reference to SI provision
- Lindsey Rousseau will introduce the workstreams of the NatSIP contract with DfE 2013—2015, supporting the SEND reforms, and the ways you can participate

The workshops in the afternoon will be:

- The Local Offer for SI schools and services (Brian Lamb)
- Funding reforms (Jamie McMahon)
- Strategies to support the curriculum for SI teaching and learning (Ros Kendrew)

The cost for the day will be £60 per delegate, £30 per delegate for NatSIP-affiliated organisations

An Agenda and Booking Form for the event will be available on the NatSIP website on 8th November 2013
